Targeted Regional Training: Preventing 5 Alarm Conflict

Learn how to avoid and resolve some of the most common issues in the Volunteer Fire Service today.

- ◆ Human Resources - Human Resources is a task everyone should be participating in, a team approach is critical. Discover how using a well organized HR strategy can help ensure good record keeping, boost morale and recruitment, and work for the overall good of your entire department. Mike Dallessandro - instructor
- ◆ Standard Operating Guidelines (SOG's) Every Fire District Must Have A complete outline of SOG's every district MUST have. Each participant will receive a digital copy to take home for reference. Dave Denniston - instructor
- ◆ Conflict Resolution - Conflict resolution is an essential part of the Fire Service leadership today. We will review all types of conflict - member v. member, officer v. officer, firematic v. commissioner, and department v. district, etc. What are the causes, how do we manage the conflict, conflict resolution and how do we create a conflict free environment. Mike Dallessandro - instructor
- ◆ Attorney's Panel - The ever popular attorney's panel. An opportunity for participants to ask questions about issues they may be facing in their own district or department.
